After an earnest and protested contest, the Republican Caucus, yeslerday afternoon, finally settled upon Judge J. R. Doofstran, of Racine, as the Republican Candidate for United States Senator, in place of Gov. Dongs, whose term expires on the 4th of March next. The final ballot-stood: 41 for DocRitle, 29 for Howe, and 2 seattering, and immediately thereafter, the Caucus, by a vote of 78 to 3, resolved to support this ination in Joint Convention to-day. BLIND OF ONE EYE .- The News of yesterday having made the discovery that the Republican Editors are a very quarrelsome, dictatorial and usualy act of fellows, hastens to proclaim this fact to its astonished readers, and at the same time holds up the Democratic Editorial fraterni ty as models of peace, harmony and disinterest edness. If the readers of the News could, per chance, forget the bitter personal warfare i which that paper has been engaged, during pret ty much the whole of its existence, with lead ing men and presses of its own political house hold, or ignore the internecine strife now wa ging between the Barstow and anti-Barstow wings of the Wisconein "democracy," to Fe which shall get the ear of the President elec and the control of the spoils, they might believe this story. But as matters stand they must r gard it as doubtless the News intended the bould—as the severest irony.

A Democratic Precedent. The News, of yesterday, copies from the De troit Free Press a characteristic assault upon th Republican Party, commencing in this wise: The black republican Senate of Ohio, a few days ago, adopted almost manimously a resolu-tion directing an inquiry into the propriety of amending the constitution of that State, so as to amending the constitution of that State, so as to provide that hereafter no person of foreign birth shall have the qualifications of an elector, until the expiration of one year from and after the is soing of final papers of naturalization. For this act the Only Senate can plead a "sat Democratic precedent." The State of South Carolina, which is unanimously Democratic (!), has just passed a law requiring one year's residence after naturalization, as a qualification for an elector. The credit of originating this measure, therefore, belongs exclusively to the Sham

Supposed Discovery of the Tower of BEIRUT, December 8, 1866.

It is nearly two years since I informed your readers of the grand and instructive discoveries in ancient Mineveh, made by M. Place, the French consul in Mosul. Following up the researches of Mr. Botts and Mr. Layard he brought to light monuments of the lang entombed six. eearches of Mr. Botta and Mr. Layard he brought to light monuments of shat hong entombed city, which equally amazed and delighted the world.
A man of genius and enthusiasm, he was encouraged by his successes to extend his researches, which he now closes with an achieveinent, which, if his opinion shall be verified, will add imperishable lustre to his name. The Tower of Babal was sunnosed to exist only see Biblical of Babel was supposed to exist only as a Biblica souvenir—a thing of memory and not of sub stance. And, indeed, to many who contempla the holders of notes, or otherwise, so as to justify us in continuing to receive their notes at par.

The owners of said banks have been in this city, and foo far as we can learn have the made any such arrangement. The stocks in the hands of the Auditor, at the present selling rates, are not quite sufficient for the redemption of said notes at par, and the owners of the above.

How surprising, then, its discovery, if discovery it shall prove—that Titantic structure, whose hase was laid in the carth yet sosked with the waters of the flood, and whose summit the property of the property of the structure.

And was designed to pierce the very heavens! And why not discovered? Nineveh has yielded up its secrets after a burial of many centuries. Babyion, once the glory of the Chaldean's excellency, has opened her gates agair, if not to her Persian besiegers, at least to the living generation, of all races, and in her cylinder books offers her history to the world's inspection. What remained for discovery in the wreck and ruin of the old world, but Babel, that mighty Tower, which was designed to pierce the skies and defy a second deluge! If it seems too much for belief, what should be thought incredible, when Ninevah and Babyion are brought back to the land of the living by a sort of resurrection, and their monuments of att are travelling through the nations to amaze and delight mashind?

Beside, there is a Providence to be traced in Babylon, once the glory of the Chaldean's excel-Beside, there is a Providence to be traced in these discoveries. I think my hand, if not my heart, will fairly tremble, if once it takes hold of the showels, the trowels and the hods used by these old museum. trowels and the hods used by these old mason

The village of Arbela, so famous in history and Alexander, is only a few days journey from Mosul, to which M. Place, wearied with the monotonous wonders of Ninevah, set off with his account of anytheriasm in cases. otonous wonders of Ninevan, set on with his ac-customed enthusiasm, in search of new discover-ies, in a region celebrated in classical history. On his way an incident occurred, which proves to what a degree the statements of history respectng the locality are the simple truth. The esort of M. Place, dismounted when they reached the field of Arbela, following the example of the consul who wished to study the battle field; and this he was obliged to do standing, as Turkish this he was obliged to do standing, as Turkish eliquette permits no one to remain seated in his saddle. Soop, however, he mounted again, in order to scour the plain, and the escort did the same, except a single Turk, of enormous proportions, who followed on foot, puffing and bathed in sweat. M. Place, pitying him for his sad plight, asked him if he did this because he preferred walking to ridiog. erred walking to riding.
"By no means," replied the Turk, "but I am unable to remount my horse, because I need the help of a stone in order to regain my stirrup, and who can find a single stone in all the plain of Giganella?"

Now it is well known that Darius employed 300,000 men for many days in levelling this phia and in breaking whatever would interpose n obstacle to his cavalry and chariots of war. In the center of the old battle-field of Arbela rises a hill of colossal dimensions, whose object the par-ty vainly conjectured, thinking it might be a ty varily conjecture, thinking it might be a tomb, or a triumphal monument or more likely both. Unfortunately they had neither time to examine it, nor the appliances necessary for existing it. Passing on, M. Place and his party at length discovered what they believed to be nothing less than the vertable lemains of the tower of Babal, the wonder of wonders, and the grandest

Near the top of the letters the straight strokes were this Court, for I want to go home—I left Betsy a the top of the letters the straight Arrokes were adorned with flourishes resembling the heads of nails. All was neat, regular, and severe; and indeed those who saw these specimens of ancient oiligraphy affirm that the fut ers of the human race wrote a better hand than their children.

Another curious fact arrested the attention of the exploring party. The sacred record runs thus: "And it came to pass as they journeyed from the East that they found a plain in the valey of Shipar, and they dwelt there. And they "Yes, what jury are you on?" asked a lawyer.

"What jury are you on?" asked a lawyer.

"What jury are you on reasked a lawyer.

Mre "Fusion." The Know Nothings and said one to another—"Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly; and they had brick for stone, (or instead of stone) and slime had they for mortar." Modern sceptics may ask: Where could these builders obtain all this bitumen? For a vast quantity must have been demanded to meet the wants of so many trowels. It is a singular coincidence that M. Place discovered a fountain at a small distance from the lev of Shinar, and they dwelt there. And they tower, whose waters flow in such abundance as almost to form a river.

The stream would force its way into a river in The stream would force its way into a river in the violnity, and did not the people hasten to stop it by setting the bituminous flood on fire, when they tranquilly waited till the fire is extinguished for the want of aliment. Thus the old fountain for the want of aliment. Thus the old fountain still pours out inexhaustible quantities of bitumen, or slime, which supplied these old builders in their vast enterprise. Bitumen also adds to the durability of bricks, as well as firmly consolidates them in masonry. Could anything be added to the marvel of the coincidence? It is not strange that a gentleman who had seen and handled some of the articles brought from the Tower of Babel by Mr. Place, should be excited as he says he was:—"In relation to archeological news I take the liberty to inform you that I have just seen the oldest things of the old world. We could refer to thou-sands who have, unsolicited, borne testimony to sains who have insolved to other testinony to a similar worth, while the inferior mixture, known as "Aromatic Schnapps," has been publicly re-pudiated by the Board of Ten Governors, as un-worthy to physic even the stomachs of the occu-pants of the New York almahouse.

Purchasers who may desire to avail themselves of the good qualities of Messenger's London Cor-dial Gia, would do well to remember the peculiar distinctions we have placed upon the genuine package, with a view of guarding against spurious imitations. In the first place, our name is blown into the glass of each bottle, which is enveloped in a white weapper, bearing upon an engraved label the English national coat of arms. In the next place, our signature is written across the face of tois label, as a further refeguard.—
By observing these peculiarities, and by purchasine from none but a reputable dealer standing and integrity, the public have it in their power to thwart the designs of knaves and im-posters, as well as to escape from their nefarious encoctions.

BYER & OO6, having removed their asock of Saddlery, Hardware and Carriage Trimmings, from 21 to their store, No. 116 Hast Water 3t., Oross Block, are desirous that all their old customers should remember them in their new quarters. They have now and intesid constantly keeping on hand a complete saterment of goods in the line of Saddlery, Hardware, Oarriage, Trimmings and Trunk Trimmings, Saddler, Bridge, Onlines, White, Blankets, Bells, Fly Rets, &c., which, they offer to the trade at such prices as will give satisfaction. They, also keep on hand and will manufacture to order all kinds of Ooseh Carriage, Gig, Buggr and Wagon Harness, Trunks, Vallese, and every article usually kept in a Saddlery Store.

Give them a sall, at No. 136 Hast Water Breet, and you will find them able and glad to sell any article wanted in their line. ENTLEMEN desirous of acquiring a thorough Mercantile Education, are assured that the advantages prevented at this institution are unsurpassed.

The Principal takes this opportunity to acknowledge the courtery of several of the most distinguished Shapping and Jobbing Houses in the East, who, recently allowed him to examine their books, besides explaining many original plans for economising labor, which, adopted as nome instances after the experience of half a century, may be justly designated the nephus uting of the art. These advantages, gasted upon Mr. SALO WS long practical experience in a variety of Obunting Houses, have unabled him to elaborate a novel and valuable series of transactions, introducing all the great heads and ramifications of mercantile routines to be acqually developed by the student. A perpetual teket confers the privilege of instruction to Book-Keeping at 91 times, as well as titulent on Writing, Mercantile Osicutations, haw, Correspondence Forms, &c.

Washington, Jan 21. SENATE—On the telegraph bill, a discussion ook place, and no definite action was had. Ad-Houss-Mr. Orr also reported the bill, the more effectually to enforce the attendance of answers of witnesses, making them liable to imprisonment and fine. During a spirited discussion, which areas, the Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms brought Mr. Simonton before the bar of the House to reply to a question from the Speak-er, as to what he had to say why further action should not be taken against him. Mr. Simmonton said he was prepared to make a speech and spoke for more than half an hour in justification of his refusal to answer what two members of the House had approached him with corrupt propositions. He denied the power of the House to proceed against him in this partic-ular case and concluded by asking to be heard by counsel. Various propositions were made respecting him. One by Mr. Orr was adopted; for the Sergeant-A-lins to keep him closely confined till he purged himself from contempt. The proceedings extended over five hours. ojourned. The board of directors of the American Colo nization Society held their annual meeting yes-terday. This is but a nominal meeting, and the regular meeting is not to take place until travel is resumed. The whole amount of reci pips dur-ing the year is $33,188,41, and the expenditure is $71,394,79. The society earnesily calls the attention of the Government to the increasing value of the trade on the African coust, and hopes some act will soon he passed by Congress to loster, nourish and protect it. The value of this trade of the U.S. with that point in 1851 was $8,146,532, while that of Great Britain was s times that amount in consequence of the latter power having for years encouraged and protected

The train which left Nev York yesterday morning, was heard from at Cat The State committee of the radical Democrati Republicans, appointed at Syracuse, last July, are to meet at the Delavan this evening.

Their meeting is called to take into consideration the question of the candidate for U.S. Senator. The committee are divided as to the propriety of making an expression of opinion. The majority certainly favors Preston King, and if any public expression is made he will be endorsed. Jas. S. Wadsworth is chairman of the committee. Tariff Amendment.

Naw York, Jan. 27.
The Herald's Washington correspondent telegraphs, that Mr. Mace has prepared an amendment which he will offer to the taniff bill which will receive the entire vote of the South. It is as follows:—That a duty of 15 per cent be levied ad valorem on all important articles whatever, except coin and bullion.

The steamship Asia sailed for Liverpool at noon to day with 50 passengers and $135,880 in Cengressional.

Washington, Jan. 21. In the next we claim in the small expense to renew the grinding parts of the mill, and the case with which the grinders are put on the mill, at a cert of not over three dollars, which makes it superior and more accommensation any other mill. The grioding parts of the above mill are made of the hardest of cast from, as hard in fact as each such can be tempered. Each adwird grind from 5,000 to 16,000 bushels of grain; with proper unage. Besides the set of grinders on the mill, surextra ser will be sent with each sulf sold, making it engal to two commen mills. When found necessary to change the grinders, almost any one can dot is in-weat/minners.

As a proof of the estimation in which the Young America is held in Oblo, we would state that during the full, winter gnd spring of 1556-16, 2000 were made and rold to Oblo, at Tanasville, by Douglas, Smith's Co., Hall & Allen of Mansdeld, Eldridge & Faucener of Omeinnati, and at New Philadelphia.

At this time there is not less than 200 being sold every week in Oblo, at retail, besides those sold in other states east and west.
